

AAA Home-School Band Fund Raiser

Many young people in the CSRA are home-schooled or attend private schools with no band programs. The AAA Band provides an opportunity for these students to participate in a band program. The AAA Band, a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization, receives no public funds and is supported by the participants, and donations from performances. The Band is in need of additional funds to provide further opportunities for the students.

The AAA Band members have performed for different events around Aiken and South Carolina. The band plays for many patriotic events, nursing homes, Special Olympics, Pregnancy Care Center Life Walk, Hopelands Garden Concert Series, and won the Over-All Best Float in the 2008 Aiken Memorial Day parade. We would like to continue and increase our community involvement, but current financial resources are limited. Additional funds would help these students to cover expenses for various auditions, performances, ministries, and service projects.
